

Stadium Regulations Red Bull Arena

§ 1 Area of Application (Premises)

These rules governing use apply to the fenced-in assembly areas and facilities of the Red Bull Arena.

§ 2 Purpose

- (1) The Red Bull Arena is primarily intended for football matches and the staging of large-scale events of a national or representative type.
- (2) The general public is not entitled to use the assembly areas or facilities within the premises for other purposes.
- (3) The contracts required for use in individual cases shall adhere to civil law.
- (4) Unless otherwise contractually agreed, the provisions of these stadium regulations shall apply.

§ 3 Authorised persons

- (1) Only persons carrying a valid entrance ticket or authorisation pass, or who can prove permission to attend individual events in some other manner, are entitled to be in the assembly areas and facilities of the premises. Admission tickets, invitations or authorised passes must be presented when requested by the police or security personnel throughout the grounds. Children up to 14 years of age may only enter if accompanied by a parent/legal guardian or suitable supervising person.
- (2) Visitors may only stay in the building during the hours of the event concerned.
- (3) The premises are equipped with an extensive network of surveillance devices (video cameras) for the safety of spectators. Video recordings can be saved for a reasonable period of time and, if necessary, used to collect evidence. Each visitor irrevocably consents to the free-of-charge use of all image, video and/or sound recordings of his/her person - in particular live broadcasts and transmissions and/or recordings - which are produced in connection with an event.
- (4) Spectators are obligated to occupy the seat listed on the entrance ticket for the event and must reach their seat only through the designated entrances and paths.

- (5) For RasenBallsport Leipzig GmbH football matches, sectors B and D are designated exclusively for so-called "home-team fans". It is prohibited for fans of the away team to be or remain in this area. The control and security service is instructed and authorised to remove visitors from this areas if said visitors are or become recognisable as fans of the away team, even if they hold entrance tickets which are valid for this area. These visitors will be moved to suitable seats whenever possible. If a suitable seat cannot be provided, the affected fan of the away team shall be removed from the stadium and entrance to the stadium shall be denied. Visitors who have been denied entry shall have no claim to reimbursement of the ticket price.
- (6) For RasenBallsport Leipzig GmbH football matches, the "Gast" (guest) section is exclusively for away-team fans. It is prohibited for fans of the home team to be or remain in this area. The control and security service is instructed and authorised to remove visitors from this areas if said visitors are or become recognisable as fans of the home team, even if they hold entrance tickets which are valid for this area. These visitors will be moved to suitable seats whenever possible. If a suitable seat cannot be provided, the affected fan of the home team shall be removed from the stadium and entrance to the stadium shall be denied. Visitors who have been denied entry shall have no claim to reimbursement of the ticket price.
- (7) Visits to the premises on days without events shall be subject to the regulations agreed upon by the stadium operator and the stadium user.
- (8) Stadium bans pronounced by the DFB (German Football Association), the DFL (German Football League) or other football federations or clubs shall be recognised and enforced.
- (9) Individuals who are excessively inebriated (with a blood alcohol level of over 0.11) or under the influence of other substances which impair the free exercise of will, and individuals who are carrying dangerous or prohibited items or who have the intention of endangering other visitors or the operations of the stadium, are not permitted on the premises.
- (10) It is possible for choreographed dances, flags, banners or other similar occurrences within the stadium to temporarily obstruct visitors' lines of sight. Such obstructions do not authorise visitors to take other seats and do not represent (partial) claims to reimbursement.
- (11) It should be noted that at events, over a long period of time sound levels can occur which may cause permanent hearing damage. The use of hearing protectors is recommended to reduce any risk of hearing damage.

§ 4 Entry Check

- (1) Each visitor is obligated to present their entrance ticket or authorisation pass upon entry to the premises to the control and security service without being requested to do so, and must also hand over these documents upon request.

- (2) Upon entry to the premises each visitor agrees to a check of his or her person, vehicle, containers and bags. Persons who refuse to undergo a check of his or her person, vehicle, containers and bags may be refused entry to the stadium.
- (3) The control and security service is authorised to search persons - if necessary through the use of technical equipment - to determine whether they represent a security risk as a result of alcohol or drug consumption or the carrying of weapons or dangerous or flammable goods. This inspection also applies to other objects brought by the visitor.
- (4) Persons who cannot prove their permission to be on the premises and persons who present a security risk shall be denied entry and prevented from accessing the premises. The same shall apply to persons who are subject to a stadium ban applied within the Federal Republic of Germany. Visitors who have been denied entry shall have no claim to reimbursement of the ticket price.

§ 5 Behaviour in the Area of Application

- (1) Each visitor is obligated to behave in such a way that no other person is injured, endangered, hindered or harassed to a greater degree than is unavoidable under the circumstances.
- (2) Visitors must follow all instructions given by the police, the fire brigade, the control and security service, other emergency services and the stadium announcer.
- (3) For safety reasons and to protect against danger, visitors shall be obligated to take seats other than those noted on the entrance ticket - also in other sectors - upon instruction by the police or the control and security service. Visitors who have been denied entry shall have no claim to reimbursement of the ticket price.
- (4) All staircases and emergency routes must be kept free at all times.
- (5) It is prohibited to enter the premises with an unauthorised vehicle or to park a vehicle in an area that is not designated for such a purpose. Unauthorised and incorrectly parked vehicles may be removed at the owner's expense. The regulations of the road traffic regulations (StVO) and a general speed limit of 20 km/h apply in the area of application.
- (6) The taking of videos and photos in the application area is only permitted for private purposes and only on devices which, based on their features and size, are clearly intended for private use. Video recording of matches is strictly prohibited
